St Catherine's | St John's | St Luke's

The Twelfth Sunday after Trinity

Jesus is the living bread coming down from heaven and giving eternal life to all who receive him. So let us praise and worship God, whose work is full of majesty and splendour and whose righteousness endures for ever.

Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Today's Readings

First Reading Proverbs 9:1-6

Wisdom invites all people to the banquet she has prepared so that they may learn from her and grow in spiritual maturity.

Second Reading Ephesians 5:15-20

Aware of the temptations and evils of the world, Paul encourages the Ephesians to exercise caution and to live wisely and well, always giving thanks and praise to God.

Gospel John 6:51-58

Jesus speaks of his flesh and blood as being food and drink, which will bring those who receive them into eternal life.

Psalm 34: 9-14

9 O fear the Lord, * ye that / are his / servants: for / they that • fear / him lack / nothing.

10 They who trust not in him do lack and / suffer / hunger: but they who seek the Lord shall want no / manner • of / thing • that is / good.

11 Come ye children and hearken / unto / me: I will / teach • you the / fear • of die / Lord.

12 What man is he that de-/lighteth • to / live: and would fain see / long life / and pros-/perity?

13 Keep thy / tongue from / evil: and thy / lips • that they / speak no / guile.

14 Depart from evil / and do / good: seek / peace / and pur-/sue it.
